II. PUBLIC COMMENT:

III. INFORMATION:

- A. Superintendent Report: DESE has formed a returned to school restart and recovery plan. Guidance on physical and virtual teaching environments, teaching and learning, operations and business services, behavioral health and social and emotional. The district received grant funding through the CARES act. The parking lot project continues to move ahead; the building was tested for asbestos. Once it comes back the building can be demolished and continue with the work. Waiting for guidance about graduation.
- B. Butler update: In the full swing of remote learning and it consist of three things assignments, Independent practice, google meet live sessions. DESE put out new content oppose to review content and teachers have increased their live sessions to 4 - 5 sessions a week. Fun activities include: remote viewing Friday, June 12th at 6:30pm for 6th grade graduation and Kindergarten graduation Monday, June 15th at 10:30 AM. Teacher appreciation week, ABC count down and more.
- C. AMHS update: Remote learning plans up and running. Students are doing two 30 minute sessions per course per week. Each week having more students complete the requirements of their google meets. Send out schedules to students by grade level; helped with helping students get on track. May 22nd is the last week for seniors and for the last week they will use for makeup work. The same plan for all other students. Planning award nights: June 9th for high School, June 11th for Middle School. Jackie Walsh, teacher of AMHS reached out to some of the scholarship donors and the donors are excited about having a live viewing and announce the winners, tentatively scheduled for June 6th. Have Bi-weekly meetings with seniors and parents, hoping to have an in person graduation in Aug but waiting for guidance from DESE. Had some fun virtual activities such as votes and PJ day. This week is Trivia week. Activities are open to others via social media account: INSTAGRAM.
- D. Special Education Update: Remote learning looks different for SPED students and parents and teachers have been really good. Karen meets with DESE every week for guidance. SPED students have a remote learning plan and they were adjusted to account the many live sessions within the school. Virtual IEP meetings started last week and they are going really well. Waiting for decisions about Extended School Year and Summer services.
